

Teaching and Learning WalkThrus

DELIVERING HIGH-QUALITY TEACHER TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT ACROSS RYEDALE, SCARBOROUGH AND YORK

Session overview

This cross-phase programme focuses on developing teacher excellence through the use of WalkThrus, an evidence-informed framework for teaching development which contains the best of the profession's practices. The programme is delivered through 5 sessions and focuses on strategies that offer solutions to tackling students' learning problems rather than teacher performance. Each session follows a similar format and will be facilitated by colleagues from across the Teaching School Hub region.

Each session is focused on one area of practice and the strategies that have the highest leverage in the classroom. These strategies will provide a reference point for reflection and support discussion about the 'best bets' for teaching in participants' particular contexts followed by time to implement and embed these in their practice. Furthermore, there will be opportunities to hear from other professionals from across the region about how they've used WalkThrus to transform practice in their classroom.

Session aims

- Introduce colleagues to WalkThrus: an evidence-informed framework for teaching development that provides the what, why and how of great teaching, whatever their career stage
- Create opportunities for colleagues to engage in rich conversations and reflection about how to improve practice
- Support colleagues to implement and embed the strategies that underpin great teaching and learning
- Empower colleagues to take ownership of their own professional development
- Create opportunities for collaboration and professional networking between colleagues
