

Fully funded NPQs

Register now for the February 2022 courses

National Professional Qualifications (NPQs) are trusted, transferable qualifications accredited by the DfE. They are designed to help teachers hone and develop the skills they already have, helping them become a more effective leader inside and outside the classroom and to facilitate excellence across a range of contexts. We are committed to ensuring that NPQs continue to offer the best possible support to teachers and leaders wanting to expand their knowledge and skills.

The three existing NPQs in Senior Leadership, Headship and Executive Leadership have been refreshed, ensuring that they are underpinned by the latest evidence of what works in schools to deliver the highest quality of education of young people. The current middle leader NPQ has been replaced with three new specialist NPQs: Leading Teacher Development, Leading Teaching and Leading Behaviour and Culture. All NPQs are fully funded by the DfE for state-funded schools and colleges.

NPQ EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Delivery partner

We are proud to be working in partnership with Ambition Institute to deliver the full range of Specialist and Leadership NPQs. We believe that Ambition's system-led leadership programme offers the very best experience for colleagues embarking on these qualifications. The blend of clinics, conferences and communities offers a high-quality CPD experience across all NPQs.

"This was amazing and I thought the course leaders were very engaging and approachable."

"It was good to have opportunities to learn new skills and meet colleagues from other schools."
